Black strap molasses is an excellent cattle feed," says Prof. F. R. Marshall of the Agricultural and Mechanical College. "In feeding steers for the Chicago fat stock show, we have found that, other rations being equal, the steers that received the most molasses have taken on flesh most rapidly. In fact, the gains in flesh have been in almost exact proportion to the quantity of molasses used."

THE MEDICAL USE OF ALCOHOLIC LIQUORS.
Testimonies of physicians compiled from letters received in answer to inquiries, and from Medical Journals by Mrs. Martha M. Allen, 27 Broad St. Oneida, N. Y., Superintendent of the Department of Non-Alcoholic Medication of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

"I have found no case of disease and no emergency arising from accident, that I could not treat more successfully with out any form of fermented or distilled liquors than with it. It is easy to see that the anæsthetic properties of alcohol can be made available by an intelligent and skillful physician to meet a very limited number of indications in the treatment of some cases that will come before him. But the same intelligence and skill will enable him to select other remedies capable of meeting the same indications more perfectly and with less tendency to secondary bad effects. I have no hesitation in stating that for the attainment of the highest degree of success in the management of all forms of disease, whether acute or chronic, we need no form of fermented or distilled alcoholic liquors, and whoever will make the trial that his patients of every kind will make better progress without any admixture of alcoholic drinks than they will with such addition."—Dr. Dr. Nathan S. Davis, former Dean of Northwestern University Medical College, Chicago, Ill., Deceased.

"In a general practice of twenty-five years I have never used alcohol in any form in the treatment of my cases; I have never felt that it was indicated in any case."—Dr. George H. Martin, San Francisco, California, Lecturer on Nervous and Mental Diseases at Hahnemann Hospital College.

"Alcoholic liquors, though much used, have very limited value as therapeutic agents."—A. E. Hedback, M. D. Barron, Wisconsin.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Safe and Sure.

Texas is building or planning so many new railroads that it is next to impossible to keep track of them all. When they are all completed Texas will not fall far short of having 50 per cent more main track than Illinois, which was the State of greatest mileage until recently, when the iron horse took a fresh spurt over the boundless areas of the Lone Star State.

A Modern Miracle.
"Truly miraculous seemed the recovery of Mrs. Mollie Holt of this place," writes J. O. Hooper, Woodford, Tenn. "she was so wasted by coughing up puss from her lungs. Doctors declared her end so near that her family had watched by her bed-side forty-eight hours; when, at my urgent request Dr. King's New Discovery was given her, with the astonishing result that improvement began, and continued until she finally completely recovered, and is a healthy woman to day." More Factories Needed.
Texas has grown wonderfully in the five years since the last federal census was taken, and if another federal census were to be taken, this State would no doubt show a far greater increase in population than in any other five years of her history—yet Texas isn't developing, growing and broadening as she should. We are pushing our agricultural development, and the price of farming land is gradually rising, and farmers are becoming more numerous—Texas is raising much more than she has raised before, but her industrial development is slow. There should be a campaign for industrial enterprises. We should be pushing for something that would keep up the other end of the development of the State. The factory belongs to the field where the raw material is produced, and in the section where the greatest demand for the manufactured products exists. Instead of shipping our cotton out of Texas at fifty dollars a bale and buying it back for from $500 to $5,000 per bale, we should be manufacturing here at home, and getting all the profits there is in it.—Texas Farmer.

Dangers of a Cold and How to Avoid Them.
More fatalities have their origin in or result from a cold than from any other cause. This fact alone should make people more careful as there is no danger whatever from a cold when it is properly treated in the beginning. For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been recognized as the most prompt and effectual medicine in use for this disease. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by all druggists.

The Agricultural and Mechanical College had on exhibit in the yearling class at the Chicago Fat Stock Show a shorthorn steer that weighed 1400 pounds. He had been fed for eight months on a mixed diet of corn chops, cotton seed meal and molasses. An entire carload of graded yearlings exhibited by the College averaged 1130 pounds each in weight. At six cents a pound each steer will thus net nearly seventy dollars.
